

Education...

...a right or a privilege?
YOU DECIDE.

Humanity First Canada is building a primary school in Narol Satra, Muzaffarabad, Pakistan. The children of this town have no source of education. Humanity First Canada is dedicated to providing education to those who are deprived of this basic right. The building of this school will enable the children to receive education, gain dignity and prosperity for themselves and their communities.

The construction of the school has begun and funds are urgently needed. Please support Humanity First Canada and extend a generous helping hand; your support will help brighten the future of these children by providing them with access to basic educational rights.
